It's been a little over two years now,

Yet it still feels like I'm learning more and more about my baby
each passing day.

I'VE REACHED THE CONCLUSION...

THAT ARTHUR HAS TO BE =THE MOST= ADORABLE BABY.

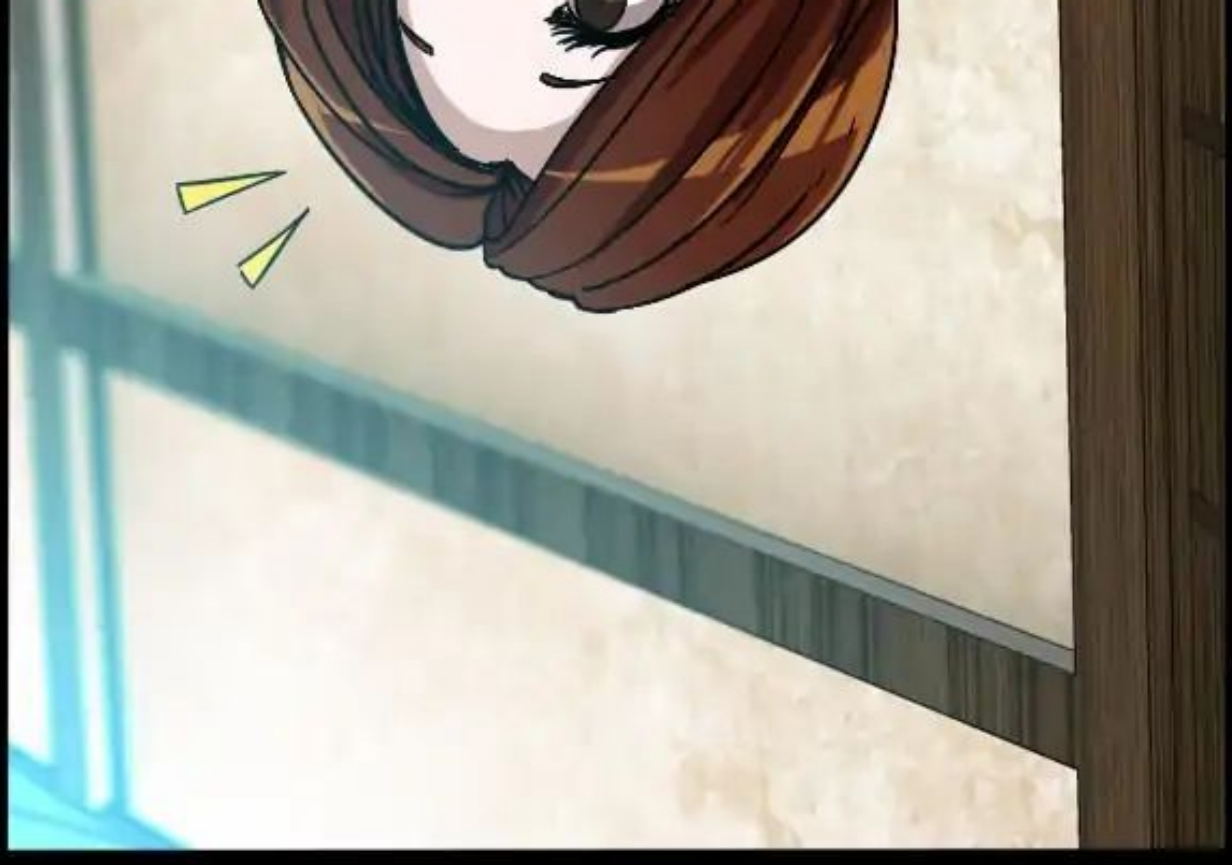
WITH HIS LITTLE PATCH OF AUBURN HAIR,

AND AZURE EYES THAT LOOK AT ME ALMOST INTELLIGENTLY...

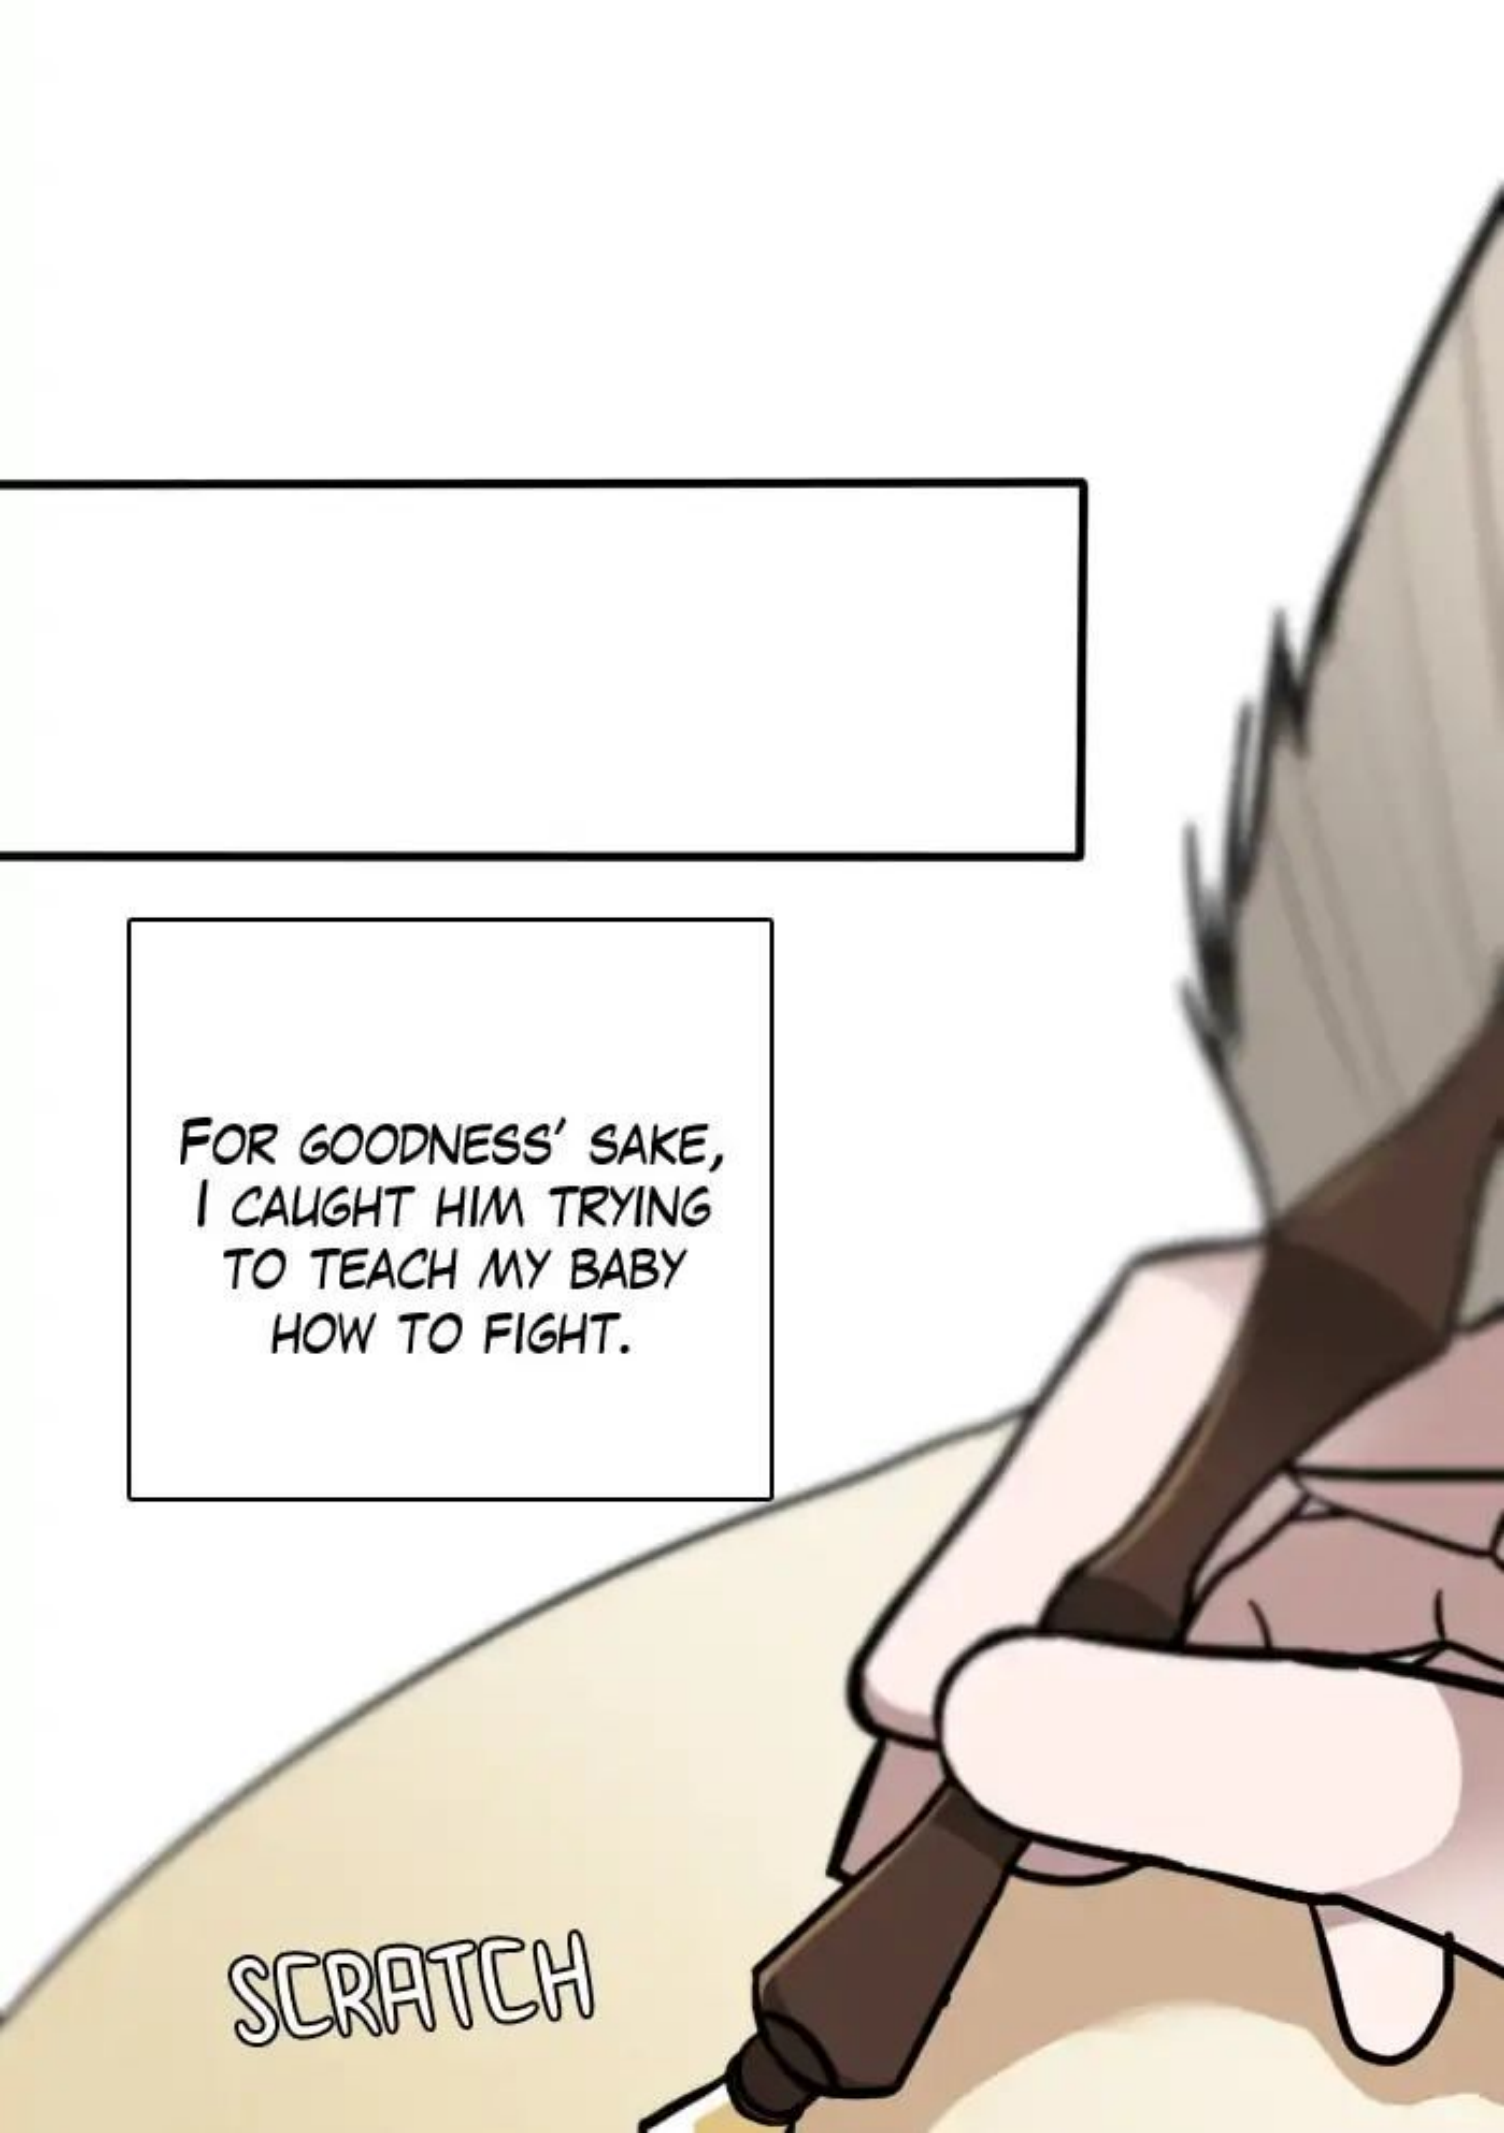
I KNOW HE WILL GET INTO TROUBLE IN THE FUTURE IF I DON'T BECOME A STRICT AND DEPENDABLE MOTHER.

IT'S NOT LIKE I CAN RELY ON REY.



ZOOHM

DOOOOOM



FOR GOODNESS' SAKE, I CAUGHT HIM TRYING TO TEACH MY BABY HOW TO FIGHT.

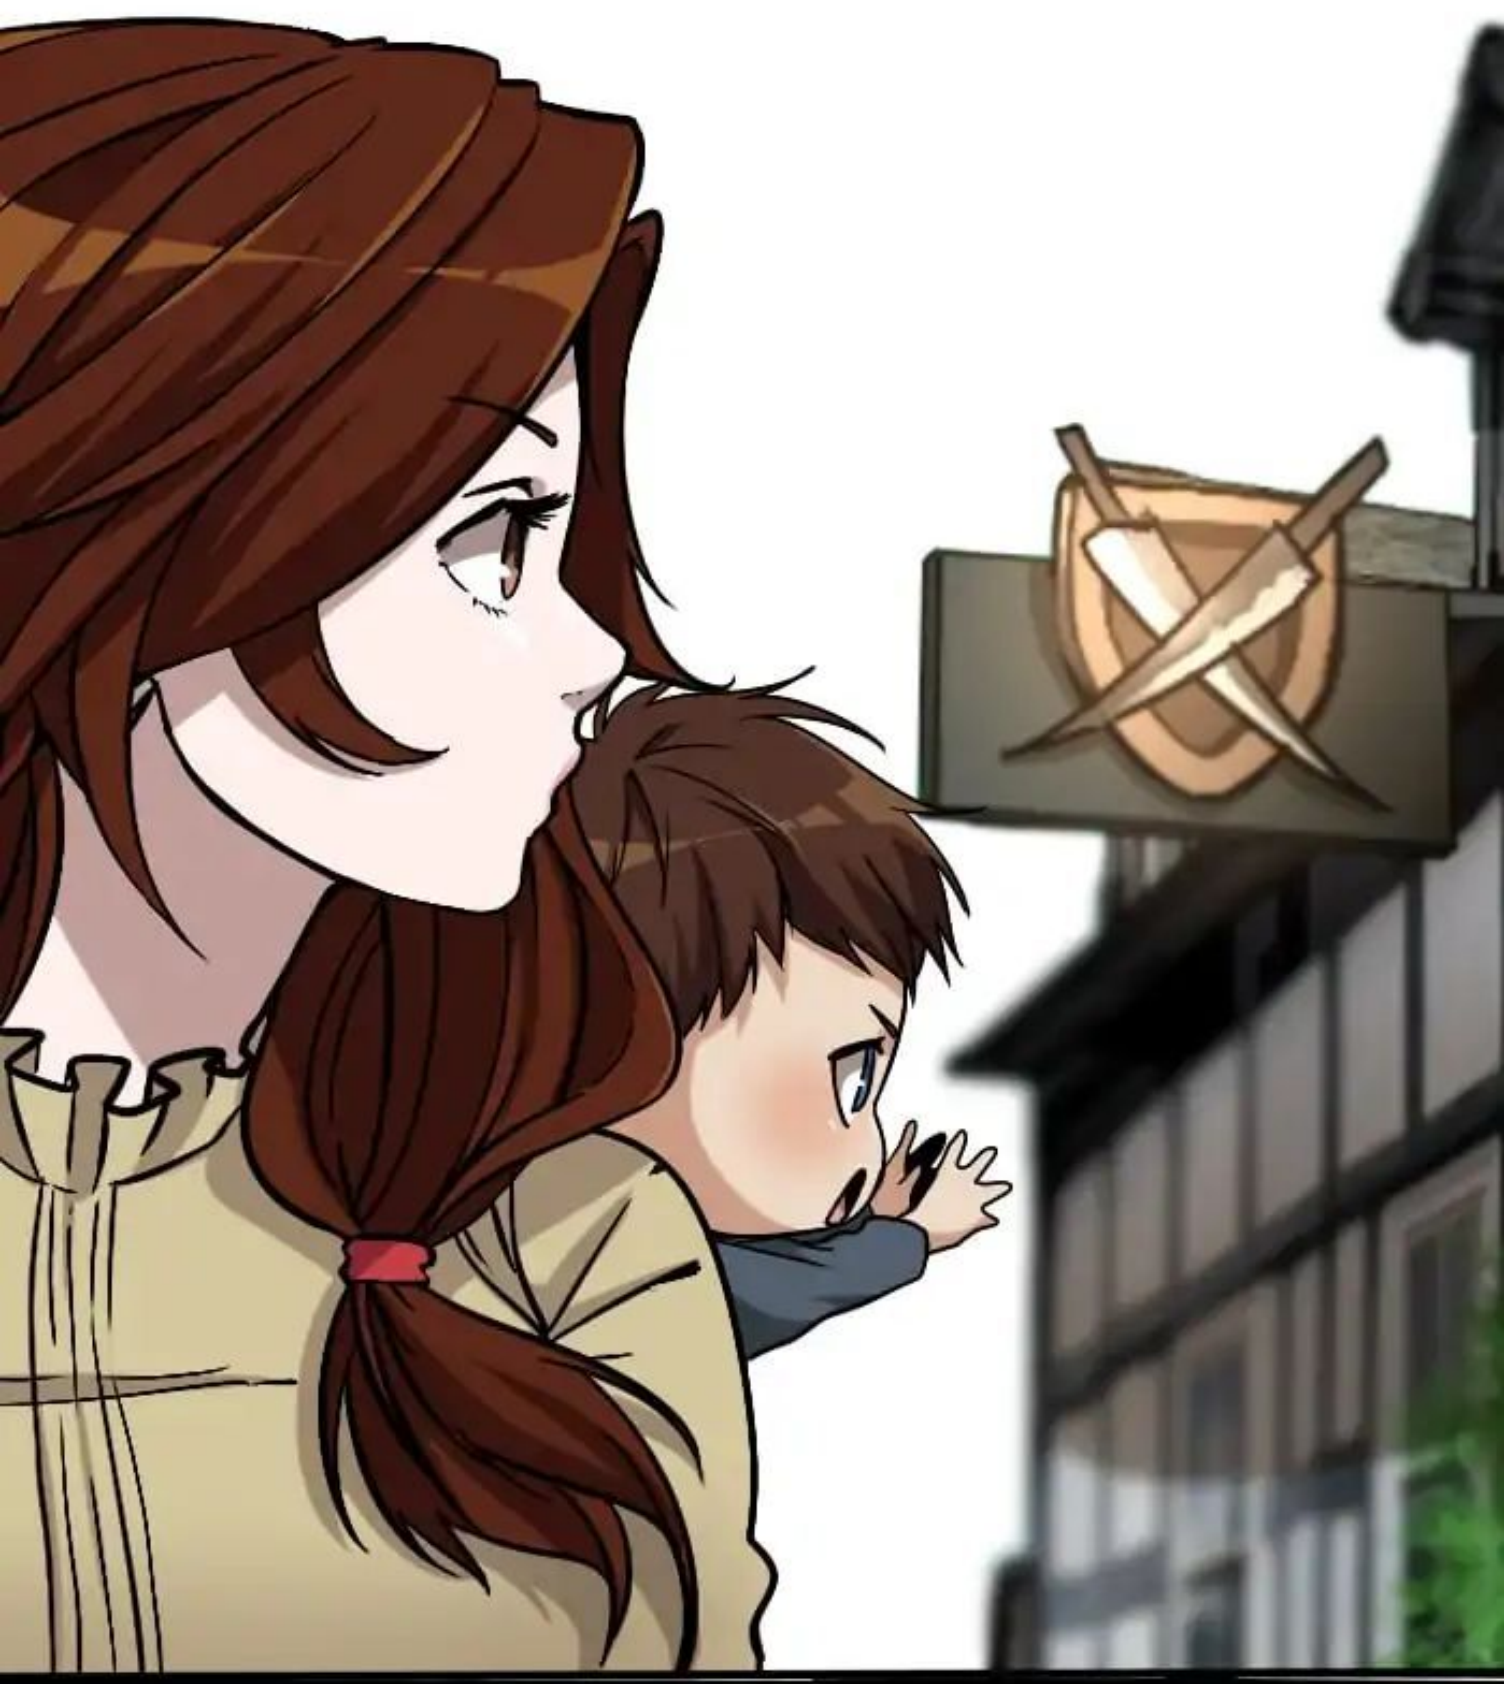
AND THIS WAS WHEN HE COULD BARELY CRAWL!



One thing I've noticed is that Arthur absolutely loves going to the small merchants' strip in Central.

ASHBER.

SO, RATHER THAN SHOPPING FOR GROCERIES ONCE OR TWICE A WEEK, WE GO DOWNTOWN EVERY OTHER DAY.

I'M NOT SPOILING HIM...

It's to have fresh food in the house and for educational purposes.

Looking at Arthur grow up so quickly, I wonder how he will be when he's older?

With Rey as his father,
I have no doubt that he'll have an interest in becoming an adventurer,

BUT I CAN'T HELP BUT WORRY.

I CAN ONLY HOPE
HE FARES BETTER THAN THE NAIVE YOUNG TEENS
HOPING TO MAKE IT BIG AS ADVENTURERS.

Now if only I could do something about his perpetual habit of sneaking into the study.

I'm tempted to move his crib into the study,

BUT THAT'S FOR ANOTHER DAY.

Approximately
two years has passed since I first made my difficult journey to the study.

I've learned a lot since then but it's been fascinating
learning new things every day.

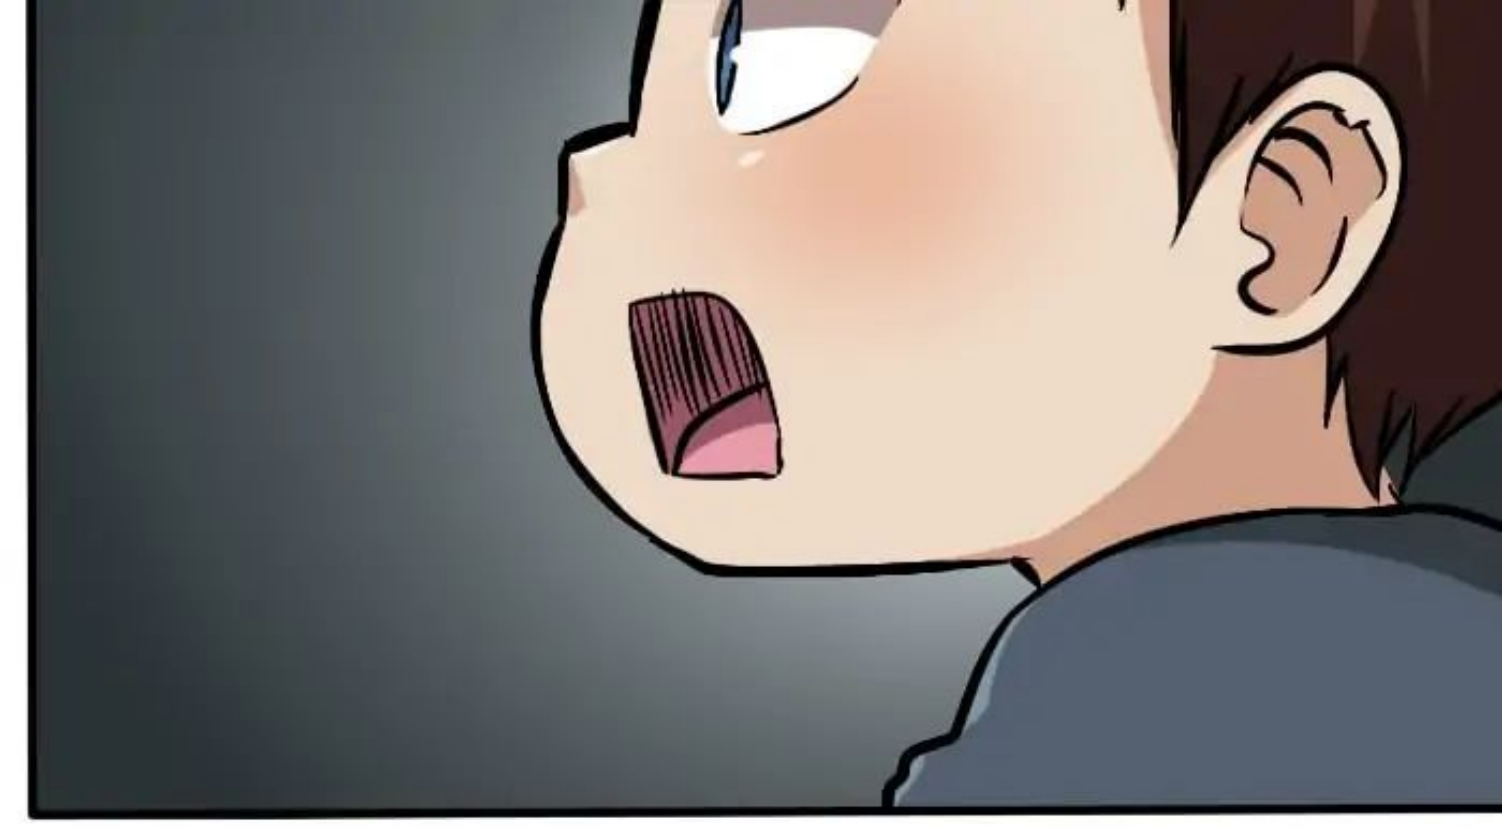
HE'S BEEN CHANTING SOMETHING FOR OVER A FEW MINUTES NOW AND HE'S CONCENTRATING REALLY HARD.

I WONDER WHAT SORT OF MAGICAL PHENOMENON HE'LL CONJURE?



SHOOM
